

To Hell and Back: Community Awareness Resources

Community Education (High School and Adults)

<http://www.ameriburn.org/> - The American Burn Association, prevention materials and links to other burn related sites

<http://www.usfa.dhs.gov> - U.S. Fire Administration "Fire Safety Education Resource Directory," a variety of publications and education materials

<http://www.nfpa.org> - National Fire Protection Association website with various fire safety education programs and publications, including the "1035 Professional Qualification Standard for Public Fire and Life Safety Educator I, II, III; Public Information Officer; Juvenile Firesetter Intervention Specialist I & II"

<http://www.ifsta.org/catalog/prevention.html> - IFSTA (International Fire Service Training Association) fire safety education publications

<http://www.burnandfireprevention.org> - Fire safety and burn prevention education materials

<http://www.afbea.org> - Arizona Fire and Burn Educators' Association

<http://fireproof-children.com> - Training and educational materials on fire safety for children

<http://www.fsfc.ufl.edu> - Florida State College Fire website

<http://www.firebooks.com> - Firefighters Bookstore – firesafety education publications

<http://www.firewise.com> - Fire education materials for people living in or vacationing in wildland fire-prone areas of the U.S.

<http://www.homesafetycouncil.org> - Fire and home safety education materials for all ages

<http://www.safekids.org> - National SAFE KIDS Coalition, education materials and safety information

<http://www.fire-eng.com> - Fire Engineering, Tulsa, OK – publications and videos

<http://www.redcross.org> - The American Red Cross website with public education materials and information